Privacy Policy

Consent to use your personal data

We know that the personal data you provide us with can be sensitive so we promise to handle it securely and carefully.

By asking us to provide our service you agree that:

- we can use the personal data you send us to provide you with our service;
- we can retain it in our records both during and for a reasonable time after we provide our service to you;
- we may exchange the information you send us with certain organisations and government bodies to detect and prevent fraud.

We want to make sure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove any information that you think is inaccurate.

You can withdraw your agreement at any time by e mailing your full name and address that you gave to us when we provided our service to you to office@claimcert.com

Subject to paying a fee of £10 you can ask us for a copy of the information we hold about you by e-mailing your full name and address to office@claimcert.com

Cookies policy

Our website places cookies on your computer or mobile device. By using our website you consent to cookies being used in accordance with this policy. If you do not consent you must disable cookies or refrain from using our website.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small data files which are placed on your computer or mobile device as you browse our website. They are used to remember when your computer or device accesses our website and is important for the smooth and effective operation of our website.

You can set your browser not to accept cookies. Visit Cookie Control to see how to do this.

How to disable cookies

If you want to disable cookies you need to change your web browser settings to reject cookies. How to do this depends on the browser you use. For example, for Microsoft Internet Explorer go to “Tools” then “Internet Options”. Click the “Privacy” tab and choose the cookie setting you want.

Disabling cookies may affect how our website operates.
